DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: amendment to the specification filed 1/22/07 is not complete. The entire addition of the term "now U.S. Patent No. 6,667,279" must be underlined.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 47, 59-65, 67, and 69-71 are objected to because of the following informalities: Claim 47, lines 1-2 recite "plugging the wellbore of an oil or gas well...wherein the well defines a wellbore," which appears to be stated in error. The first term "the wellbore" should be replaced with --a wellbore-- in order to properly set forth a wellbore, while the second term "a wellbore" should be replaced with --the wellbore--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 47 and 59 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Van Buskirk et al. (US 5,417,285).

Van Buskirk et al. discloses a method that includes a method for removably plugging a wellbore of an oil or gas well to be abandoned, wherein the well defines the wellbore and wherein the method comprises the step of forming a plug within the wellbore the plug being removable from the wellbore by circulating fluid through the wellbore. See at least the abstract, figures, and claims. With respect to claim 59, the plug is removable by the stated fluids.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 60-65, 67, and 69-71 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the objection set forth in paragraph 2 of this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
